

ONLINE BROADCAST SERVICES

Online broadcast services is an application in online television or it's the digital distribution of television concept such as tv shows' via online.

It provides domestic and international channels in a package scheme each package has a set of different channels and also each package have in specific amount of time period and payment.

The users can register on this site and enjoy on their package after payment.

User Stories

- The user can view the list of packages and their details include payment
- The time period of the subscribed package will end the user can renew the package after payment

Modules

- 1) Admin: Registration of provider, add channels, package and manage programs.
- 2) Broadcast management(Provider): Approve the registration of users or approve user request manage all over activities of user and package subscriptions.
- 3) User: Users can choose the package subscribe the package and renew the package.
- 4) Guest user: Guest users can see only about the channel packages in detail.